Nick:

I have the document open and it appears the missing page numbers are intentional, perhaps to separate sections of the report.

It may be intentional but wanted to confirm. Thought it odd that not even page numbers on the black pages. Example page #4, #26.

On behalf of the Bureau of Reclamation and the Department of the Interior, I am transmitting the final Technical Evaluation of the Gold King Mine Incident, prepared by USBRs Technical Service Center in Lakewood, Colorado.

The 132-page report will be distributed this afternoon at 1:00 pm EDT in a pre-notification to interested States, Tribes and Congress. It will be released to the public at 2:00 pm EDT. The url for the report on our site will be activated at 1:00 pm. That URL will be at www.usbr.gov/docs/goldkingminereport.pdf but the shortened URL <http://on.doi.gov/1RdRhD6> will be used to share the report.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns.
